VOL. LXIII. No. 6. REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA. SATURDAY, MAY 6, 1922 ESTABLISHED 1859

WATER RATES TO BE INCREASED. TRUSTEES LABOR TO FIND WAY

A raise of 6 cents in the water rate was granted officials of the Redwood City Water Company at a meeting of the town trustees here last Monday night.

The agreement, effective from the first of the present month, will endure for one year, according to the contract.

Under the new arrangement water will be furnished the city at the rate of 18½ cents per 1000 gallons, reducing the old contract which expired March 1, 1921, and fixed the rate at 12½ cents. The rate to consumers will be increased 4 cents per 1000 gallons with a monthly service charge of 25 cents, these provisions to become effective immediately under an ordinance now being prepared by City Attorney Albert Mansfield.

In addition to settling the rate question, decided at a conference with the water company representatives just prior to the regular meeting of the board, the trustees resolved to submit the proposition of municipal purchase of the water works at a special election next year.

The proposition which was defeated at the last municipal election cannot again be submitted to the voters until the expiration of one year. The proposal to purchase the water plant under a $30,000 bond issue was defeated by a narrow margin, due to certain misunderstandings of the proposition, in the belief of city officials.

Preliminary reading of the new building ordinance was given and an ordinance passed granting permission to the city and county of San Francisco to construct and maintain water pipes through certain streets of Redwood City in connection with the completion of the San Francisco-Hetch Hetchy water system.

Assurances that the state railroad commission will co-operate with the city in regulation of through passenger traffic on bus lines from San Francisco to San Jose was given to the board by City Attorney Mansfield who reported the result of a conference wit hthe commission.

Schedules of the companies call for stops at this city on both north and southbound buses of the express lines, with the exception that buses are not required to stop for passengers when they have full load, Attorney Mansfield reported.

Complaints of violations of this ruling will bring immediate action by the commisison against offending bus drivers, according to Mansfield's report.

Maps of the Whipple tract and a new subdivision lying along Whipple road and Ashley avenue and of "Emerald Lake No. 5" were presented by City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt and accepted by the board.

Tax collctcions for the past month amounting to $18,729.19 were reported by City Tax Collector Frank K. Towne and license fees collected for April totaled $283, according to the report of City Marshal C. L. Collins.

Further reports of the city treasurer and tax collector showed a balance in the general fund of $17,034.72 and a balance in the water fund of $7,754.66.

Attention of the city fathers was directed to the upkeep of the public parks and squares of the city by a petition of Bonita Parlor No. 10, Native Sons of the Golden West. The matter was referred to the street committee.

A deed from the Redwood Highlands Company granting the city a strip of land in Oak Knoll Manor for the laying of sewer pipes was accepted on presentation by City Attorney Mansfield.

A resolution calling for the closing of a portion of Maple street at the Beeger tannery was adopted on motion of Trustees Tuchsen and Mable. The portion of the roadway affected by the petition is a creek bed lying along the property of the Beeger plant.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION INVOLVES PACIFIC CITY

That the peninsula will soon have a beach resort second to no resort in the world, located at San Mateo, was evidenced here last week when, according to reports what is said to be the largest realty transaction of recent years in this county was consummated with the filing of a deed that transfers Pacific City from the William H. Howard estate to A. H. Dougall, Jr., and Arnold C. Lackenbach of San Francisco. The deed recites a nominal consideration of $10, but revenue stamps for $200 indicate a valuation of at least $200,000 upon the San Mateo beach property that is to be opened May 30 as a bathing resort and amusement park. Dougall and Lackenbach are directors of Pacific City and it is understood that within a few days they will transfer the property to the Pacific City corporation.

Pacific City today, it is said, represents an investment of more than $473,200 in money actually spent, contracts let and obligations incurred up to the present time, with a much greater outlay planned for the future.

James E. Van Court celebrated his 81st birthday at the home of friends in this city on Wednesday, May 3. Mr. Van Court has resided in California for the past 72 years and a good many of those years have been spent in Redwood City. For many years he had a picture gallery on the old school lane. While in the business he took the pictures of all who come his way. During his spare time he made toys for the children. He was always anxious to make someone happy. In the olden days he organized camping parties to go out to the mountains for huckleberries. He had parties for the boys and girls. The Redwood City friends of the young couple had not been apprised of their engagement, so the knowledge of the wedding was inded a surprise. Mrs. Heydenfeldt was graduated from Sequoia several years ago. With her sitser Fern she attended the Ravenswood school and the two Toothaker girls were among the most popular students the school ever had. The groom is well known here, he having resided in Redwood City omst of his life. PENINSULA CITIES ON HIGHWAY TO LOSE SOURCE OF REVENUE

The practice of certain San Mateo county municipalities in turning into their own respective treasuries the fines of traffic offenders on the state highways received a jolt from the county board of supervisors here last Monday.

Chairman C. V. Thompson, who lives in Pescadero, where it is said fines are rather few and far between, called the attention of the board to the statute which provides that such fines shall be remitted to the county treasurer, to be later allotted to the various municipalities on the basis of population. The money thus apportioned is to be used for highway construction, under the provisions of the same statute, according to legal authorities.

Chairman Thompson inquired as to the present accumulation of fines, the fining business having been reported rather brisk of late in certain localities favored by highways much in vogue with the usual springtime exoduc from a certain crowded center of population not more than one thousand miles to the north of our well knokn court house.

The chairman and others were thereupon informed by District Attorney Franklin Swart that the aforesaid law, as hereinbefore mentioned and above described and first outlined, etc., etc., doth duly and most interestingly and quite eruditely and without doubt or question, specify, declare, set forth, proclaim, announce and make plain the following, as hereinafter to be described and strictly adhered to, or thereabouts:

That first off the bat, the magistrates concerned with the enforcement of said, etc., etc., laws shall proceed to get the money in cash if posible.

That they shall deliver it, minus nothing, and in one payment, also if possible, to the duly constituted, etc., etc., treasurer of the county of San Mateo, State of California, all as aforesaid.

Acting upon this advice the board instructed the county auditor to make demand upon all city recorders for the aforesaid cash, same to be delivered to wit and "to oncet" and to the duly prescribed and legal strong boxes of the county.

Miss Sarah Fry, formerly of Redwood City, next addressed the board on the subject of goats. Politicians said to be familiar with that learned treatise entitled "Goats, Their Rise and Remedy," sat in rapt attention during the address of Miss Fry, who owns a large goat ranch at Montara and is said to have lately become interested in a similar enterprise at Menlo Park.

J. J. Bullock, attorney for Miss Fry, applied for a revocation by the board of a recently enacted ordinance which prohibits the keeping of more than four goats in any unincorporated town of the county.

Enforcement of this ordinance would entail the removal of Many of Miss Fry's animals back to Montara, the original home of the goat, it was explained to the board by Attorney Bullock.

Supervisors MacBain and Hickey said they were opposed to the keeping of goats on property adjacent to the state highway. They said nothing about getting goats, either along the highway or in other places, so far as learned.

Dr. Carl Fisher of San Mateo spoke in favor of the goats, saying that sanitary conditions at the Menlo Park goat ranch are all that could be desired.

The application for the revocation of the goat ordinance was denied on motion of Supervisors Hickey and MacBain.

REDWOOD CITY WOMAN'S CLUB PETITION COUNTY SUPERVISORS

Reports of County Officials Received and Filed. Judge Fitzpatrick Addresses Meeting

The Redwood ity Woman's Club has petitioned the county supervisors to refuse to accept maps of subdivisions of certain types where the subdivisions are not provided with proper sewer and water facilities.

The petition is aimed at tracts designed to be marketed in small parcels of less than 100 feet frontage and asks that the filing of such plats with the county recorder be denied except where necessary sanitary arrangements are previously installed.

The communication, submitted at the regular meeting of the board on Monday, was referred to District Attorney Swart for an opinion.

A communication from the Redwood City Chamber of Comerce enclosing a copy of the chamber's endorsement of the Dumbarton bridge site for the proposed bridge across the bay to be constructed as a joint project with the building of the east side highway by San Mateo and San Francisco counties, was submitted and filed.

The action of the local chamber came as a reaffirmation of the stand on the bridge matter in 1916 and further endorsed the plan for forming the joint highway district of the two counties, as already considered by the supervisors here and in San Francisco.

A resolution from the Irvington Chamber of Commerce endorsing the bridge project at Dumbarton and the action of the San Mateo county board in initiating proceedings for the joint highway district was accepted by the supervisors with instructions to County Clerk Mrs. Elizabeth M. Nash to thank the Irvington chamber of its offer of co-operation.

Judge Edward F. Fitzpatrick addressed the board on the matter of repairs for a road leading from Santa Cruz avenue to San Francisquito creek near Stanford University. The petition for reconditioning the road was signed by many of the residents of the third township and was referred to Supervisor MacBain for action.

A map showing the relative position of old and new roads in the locality, the latter having been constructed by the authorities of Santa Clara county and never recognized as a public thoroughfare by supervisors of San aMteo county, was exhibited by B. S. Johnson, one of the petitioners, who asked that temporary repairs be made on the old road which serves many persons who have built houses in the vicinity.

Supervisor MacBain said the lack of road funds had delayed repairs both to the roads and the bridge across San Franciscquito creek, which he intended to include in the repairs as soon as funds were available.

The Menlo Country Club west of this city was granted permisison to lay 8,000 feet of 4-inch water mains along the Woodside road. The pipe line will extend from a pumping plant a quarter of a mile west of Five Points to the country club property.

Following inquiry by Chairman Thompson as to the disposition of fines collected by municipalities from offenders on the state highway, District Attorney Swart advised the board that certain city authorities were withholding these fines, which should be turned over to the county treasury, according to law. Swart told the board that considerable unfavorable criticism had been directed toward San Mateo county because of the practice of certain city magistrates in assessing numerous fines against alleged traffic offenders who were not instructed as to the charges against them in many cases.

On motion of Supervisor MacBain, seconded by Supervisor Francis, the county auditor was directed to demand that all fines collected by city authorities be legally handled.

The report of Superintendent J. R. Eubanks of the county farm and hospital for the month of March was submitted to the board. There were 67 patients cared for during the period, with 5 deaths and 11 patients discharged, according to the superintendent's report.

County Horticultural Commissioner A. W. Tate's report for the month of April, as submitted to the board, showed inspections of 715 shipments and 346,650 plants during the month. The report also dealt with rodent control measures in the county.

Reports of arrests and traffic accidents for the month of April were received from County Traffic Officers Jimmie Logan, James Dalziel, Lelond Bond and J. F. Quinlan.

Walter Trefts, the popular cort reporter for this county, has resigned his position as private secretary to District Attorney Brady of San Francisco. Mr. Trefts will continue his duties here, but expects to practice law, he having been admitted to the bar some years ago. Mr. Trefts is also a teacher in the high school department of San Francisco. He is accounted one of the most expert court reporters in the country.

HART BOOZE BANDITS MIX IN POLICE TANGLE

Clifford Rollins, former insurance solicitor of San Francisco and remembered here as a participant in the robbery of the home of Julian Hart at Menlo Park early in March, has named members of the San Francisco police department in a gigantic liquor scandal, which coincides with statements attributed to Arnold V. (Tommy) Thompson, a Redwood City man, now awaiting trial here as the alleged leader of the bandits who removed more than $25,000 worth of liquor from the Hart home and terrorized members of the household for more than 12 hours.

Following his arariganment before Justice Ray Griffin here three weeks ago, Thompson stated, it is said, that Rollins had assured him the robbery of the Menlo Park home would be easy, because certain officials and others had been "fixed."

Rollins told Thompson that the robbery of the Hart mansion would be merely a matter of "hauling the booze away," according to the latter's statement to newspaper men.

Previous to his pleading guilty to burglary and receiving a San Quentin sentence in the superior court here, Rollins stated that Thompson was "far from being a leader of the bandit party." He said that the part played by the local man was more "the part of a tool than the part of a leader."

Disclosures by Rollins, now serving a prison sentence, meted out by Judge Buck, have caused the most exhaustive investigations into alleged bribery of San Francisco police officers. Several have been suspended and numerous grand jury indictments are expected as the result of statements by Rollins that a well organized gang of bootleggers operated in conjunction with officers of the San Francisco depariment.

Questioning of Thompson in the county jail here by Chief of Police Daniel O'Brien of San Francisco during the past week failed to throw additional light on the charges brought by Rollins, according to Chief O'Brien's account. Many questions dealing with the San Francisco booze conspiracy are said to have been answered by Thompson with the words, "I do not care to answer that question."

Thompson will be tried here next Thursday on charges of robbery and burglary, growing out of his alleged participation in the Menlo Park burglary. The robebry charges are being pressed against Thompson because of the alleged removal of cash from the pockets of the servants in the Hart household, according to local authorities.

Thompson was represented by Edward A. Cunha, former assistant district attorney of San Francisco, at his hearing here last week.

Following a plea of not guilty entered by Thompson, his attorney proposed to District Attorney Swart that Thompson plead guilty to first degree burglary, with the stipulation that the robbery charge be dismissed. District Attorney Swart declined to make promises and stated that Thompson will be held to answer on both charges.

DUMBARTON BRIDGE ENDORSED, EAST SIDE HIGHWAY BACKED

Mass Meetng of Peninsula and Alameda C. of C. Vote to Back Plans of S. F. and S. M. Supervisors

Dumbarton Point as the site for the proposed bridge to span the San Francisco Bay from San Mateo to Alameda county was unanimously endorsed at a meeting here last Saturday of representatives of 16 organizations including interests of northern Santa Clara county and southern Alameda county as well as of practically all portions of San Mateo county.

The resolution expressing the sentiment of the meeting states that the bodies represented wish to reaffirm their various actions of seven years ago with regard to the choice of the Dumbarton site, agreed upon at that time as the logical and practical location of the bay bridge.

The actual specification of the bridge site is not named in the resolution, which defers the matter to the decision of competent engineers, recommending that the advice of the present engineering forces of San Mateo and San Francisco counties be given prime consideration with regard to the location of the bridge, to be built in connection with the east side highway, by a joint highway district comprising the two counties.

The meeting was presided over by Frank K. Towne, president of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce and of the Peninsula Bureau of Chambers of Commerce and Civic Associations. R. H. K. NATURALIZATION

The following is a detailed explanation of a bill introduced by Senator Samuel M. Shortridge providing for the enrollment of all aliens annually; the payment by each alien of an annual fee of $24; codifying all naturalization laws; changing the name of the naturalization bureau to the bureau of citizenship and reorganizing its activities and making provision for the money realized to go into a citizenship instruction fund for the education of aliens in the American form of government and its ideals.

From a strictly California angle the bill is especially desirable, as it will give the most accurate statistics obtainable on the Japanese population, since it will require every alien to register. It will provide means of determining who are legally in this country and prevent illegal entry.

The federal government has the right to provide for the registering of all aliens and to fix an enrollment charge or fee.

Equal rights for women in citizenship are recognized for the first time in this bill, as it will do away with the existing law which gives automatic citizenship to women whose husbands become naturalized and compels American women to lose their citizenship by marriage to an alien. It will retain the citizenship of an American born woman who marries an alien. Likewise the children of an American born woman will become American citizens, even though born in a foreign country, providing they register at an American consulate upon reaching their 21st birthday.

Naturalization experts have endorsed the change in the naturalization code and have estimated that California school funds will be enriched to the extent of $8,000,000 annually by the operation of this bill if it is enacted. The school funds of other states will gain in proportion to the number of aliens registered. This money will go directly into the control of the present school authorities who will be authorized to establish schools for aliens. Free textbooks, prepared by the naturalization authorities will be supplied and the courses would consist of American history, American civics and the common school branches. While the educational classes are not compulsory upon the alien, he will find it difficult to gain American citizenship unless he does take advantage of them and his annual tax of $24 will continue until he is naturalized.

Whereas applicants for citizenship are now required to speak English, the bill increases the requirements to ability to "speak, read and write the English language understandingly." The bill calls for greater knowledge of American history and of the American form of government.

In small communities and in rural districts the school authorities would be appointed registrars, while in the large cities the officials of the naturalization bureau as now organized would take charge of the enrollment.

The penalty for refusal of a newly arriving immigrant to enroll is deportation under the existing laws, or an additional fee of $2 per month for each month of delinquency may be imposed at the discretion of the registrar. Minor children under 18 years of age would not be required to enroll, but those between 18 and 21 would be required to enroll and pay a fee of $10. While alien wives of aliens would be required to register, their husbands may perform this function for them and no fee would be exacted unless the wife is gainfully employed.

The bill specifies that immigrants will have to register with the American consul abroad before starting on their journey to the United States. When they arrive at the port of entry their destination would be noted and the registrar in that city notified of their coming so as to make demand for registration.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

The political pot in San Mateo county has not yet begun to simmer and hardly a stir shows on the surface. It begins to look as though most of the county officials might go back into their respective offices without the formality of running against any one, and for that matter why shouldn't they? They have conducted their offices well and are capable and courteous men and women. With the exception of the shrievalty contest, where the incumbent is not a candidate, no one has made any announcement of candidacy. For sheriff Deputy Sheriff H. W. Lampkin has announced that he would gladly wear the badge and symbol of authority. Frank Roach, the ex-village blacksmith of Menlo Park, who now teaches flowers how to grow, would also like to guard the peace and dignity of the commonwealth of San Mateo county. Chief of Police C. M. Hirschey of Hillsborough feels that he has attained experience in detecting crime sufficient to qualify for sheriff. Joseph A. Meeks of Daly City had intimated that he would also campaign for sheriff, but as he was deflected for city trustee in Daly City he will probably conclude that his friends are too fickle for him to continue further in the political field.

Frank Eksward will probably be a candidate for the assembly again. Chester Jones, who punches transfers for the United Railroads on the San Mateo run, says that he wants to represent San Mateo county in the lower house at Sacramento. Chester lives in Daly City. He is a Spanish-American war veteran and was a sergeant at arms in the legislature several years ago. We have also heard that a prominent attorney of Burlingame might be induced to run but as we have not talked the matter over with him we will not make his announcement at this time.

The only contest for judicial honors this year comes from the north end, where J. L. Brown, retired editor of the Daly City Record, wants to take the ermine from Judge Ellis C. Johnson. At South San Francisco L. G. Hardy has announced that he will be a candidate for the justiceship now held by Judge William Smith. Mr. Hardy is a city councilman and is popular in South City. Judge Smith has not as yet made announcement of his intentions.

Of the supervisors Mrs. Rosalie M. Brown of San Mateo and Dr. C. Y. Thompson of Pescadero will be obliged to seek the suffrages of their constituents. In the second township Mrs. Brown has asked for reelection. She has two opponents at the present time. M. J. Conway, the real estate man of San Mateo, has come forward with the request that he be given the chance to conduct the county's business affairs. In Burlingame Clarence Fowler, a contracting builder, has announced that he will seek the supervisorship. It is too early to predict, but with two men against her to split the opposition, Mrs. Brown might have a good chance to slip in.

Over in the fifth township Dr. Thompson seems to have things his own way. He has made a good supervisor and has secured $50,000 from the general fund to repair his roads, so the people have a kindly feeling toward him. In Halfmoon Bay Judge Pitcher will probably have to contend with E. E. Herrick again this year. The judge has "Red" as a contender for the justice of the peaceship last election, but nosed him out and we understand that Red is in a receptive mood.

The others, as we remarked before, have nothing as yet to worry about, but you never can tell what might transpire before the last Tuesday in August.

THE SUPREME COURT

We are pleased to state our position to our readers in the matter of the election of the justices of the state supreme court. The present chief justice, Judge Shaw, will not be a candidate for re-election. We feel that Hon. Curtis D. Wilbur, associate justice, is the man to succeed Judge Shaw. Wilbur is a man whose training has fitted him for the position. He served several terms as superior judge of Los Angeles county. He was appointed associate justice to fill an unexpired term and at the last election secured the highest vote of any of the candidates for the supreme court. Judge Wilbur is an aggressive, strong man. He is a brother of Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, and is the kind of a man that the people should be proud to honor.

We are also for Judge Charles A. Shurtleff and Judge William A. Sloane, the incumbents, who are seeking re-election. Judge Shurtleff resides in our own county at Menlo Park. He is a great, big, fine looking man. He has been an honest, successful lawyer and has made a good judge. Any man who has ever met Judge Shurtleff will vote for him, as it takes only a short time to know that he is trustworthy and able and capable. San Mateo county should give an absolutely solid vote for him.

Judge William A. Sloane should also receive a big vote in this county because he is the right man for the right place. His record is good. His decisions have been fair and unprejudiced in every case that has come before him. His friends say that Judge Sloane is not a politician. He can't ask anyone for votes. That should be his greatest recommendation. The justices of the supreme court of California should not be required to ask anyone to vote for them. They should be appointed for life by a board consisting of the governor and delegates from the different bar associations, but as that is not the way they are selected, Judge Sloane's friends must carry on for him.

The bar association of California has endorsed Wilbur, Shurtleff and Sloane. The lawyers of the state should be the ones who are best qualified to recommend men for the positions. If we want carpentering done we go to the best carpenter we know and get his advice and help. If we are ill we get the best possible physician to prescribe for us and take his word in the selection of a specialist. Why shouldn't we take the advice of the leading lawyers of the state? If we do we will elect Hon. Curtis D. Wilbur chief justice, Hon Charles A. Shurtleff and Hon William A. Sloane associate justices of the supreme court of California.

BACK CHAMBER OF COMERCE

Is it lack of interest that recently caused only 8 replies to the 142 questionaires sent out to the business men and citizens of this city by the Chamber of Commerce relative to holding a 4th of July celebration here?

Something is wrong, it would seem. 142 citizens petition for a celebration and Secretary R. H. K. Smith sends out the questionaires. More replies should have been received. Perhaps it was the mere mention of money which scared away the replies.

It is good that Mr. Smith has a sense of humor, and the chamber has shown that it can rise to the occasion, as it has in the Dumbarton bridge controversy, or he might draw discouraging conclusions from the result of his questionaires. We need to realize more than ever that our chamber of commerce is a part of our life, and without it we cannot grow or live as a city.

SOME IMPRESSIONS

The Chautauqua has been in Redwood City all this week and has as usual brought some wonderfully fine talent to our city. The burden of financing this institution falls on pratcically the same body of men who have looked after its interests each year. While the attendance was good, each of the guarantors had to put up a small amount to cover the amount guaranteed. Chautauqua is a good thing for any community to have in its midst. We acknowledge that the seats are hard, but the lectures are all so inspirational that they nearly make one forget the discomfortures and splinters. Next year we hope the sessions will be held in the auditorium of the new high school.

Judge Alden, steenth great grandson of our old friend John Alden and his good wife Priscilla, gave a talk at Chautauqua last Monday night that would have warmed the heart of Mrs. Lewis E. Aubury of Burlingame. Mrs. Aubury, who has held most of the offices of the county federation of womens' clubs, never lets a chance go by to heave a boulder at the signs that beautify our highways and adorn the fences and barns that border the right of way of the S. P. Company. Well, as we were saying, Judge Alden, who hails from the bean eating hub of the U. S. A., paid his respects to the billboard, both in prose and poetry, and between you and me the judge is a pretty good poet at that. He told the assembled throng they should be ashamed of themselves for not rising up and putting through legislation to rid our thoroughfares of some of the monstrosities that take up space and shut out a view of the landscape. The judge says ne never gets a chance to see the scenery when he travels, as he is always on the lookout for some new sign as he is passing along the way.

The town of Redwood City should purchase the old baseball grounds across from the S. P. station from the high school district. The high school will have no need of the grounds after this year. The students will play on the new school grounds. The high school trustees refused a fairly good offer for the property, as they felt the town should have the first chance to secure this valuable site.

There are a number of reasons why the city should acquire this site. The town needs a corporation yard where street implements, etc., can be stored. It could make good use of the property as a public camp site. But beyond and way above these things it needs the property as as a public playground. Last week we passed through Palo Alto. The gentleman with whom we were riding remarked that he liked Palo Alto and wanted to locate there because of the playground facilities for the children. Redwood City should try to attract families with children. The baseball ground as a well equipped playground will help put over the proposition of attracting families.

Down in Mountain View last week a little 14-year-old girl shot a 17-year-old boy. It happened in the night time. Fortunately for everyone concerned, the boy is going to recover. For days he lay in his bed in the San Mateo hospital, his life in the balance. There are several angles to the case that every thoughtful person should consider. First, mothers of 14-year-old girls should not allow their daughters to roam the streets after dark and in no case after 10 o'clock. The girls at that age should be at home, studying their lessons or making themselves useful.

Secondly, and of far more importance, children should not be allowed to have automatic revolvers. The parent of any boy or girl who is known to have a revolver should be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. There is no excuse for a parent not knowing that his boy or girl has a pistol. The girl who did the shooting in Mountain View knew where she could borrow a "gun." She borrowed it and carried it around loaded under her dress. The metropolitan press has been wasting a whole lot of maudlin sympathy on this girl. What she needed was a good spanking last year and the year before. There has been a woman in San Francisco who has been curing many ills of mankind by the laying on of hands. We would advocate that more parents resort to the old fashioned habit of "the laying on of hands, or slippers, or black staff" and there would be fewer happenings of the kind that has stirred Mountain View during the past week.

Last Sunday evening the fire whistel blew. The alarm was turned in from No. 18. Within five minutes there were half a hundred machines at Brewster and Arguello—within another five minutes there were as many more and everybody growled because it was a false alarm. Really they should have gone away rejoicing that some fellow wasn't burned out of house and home on that beautiful Sabbath evening, but rejoicing wasn't their mental attitude. We are a strange sort of people.

The mayor of our city is George W. McNulty. We are willing to make a bet with anyone that he will be one of the best mayors we have ever had. He wasn't anxious for the honor but was willing to assume the responsibility when his fellow board members insisted on his taking the place. George W. McNulty is the kind of a fellow we like to see in a public office. He is absolutely honest. He is fair minded. He is willing to weigh any problem and if he is wrong he is willing to admit it. If you want to find him you can locate him at any time at his regular job. He is a good man for the mayoralty and the city should be proud to do him honor.

Meredith Eva, who was compelled to give up his studies at Stanford University because of eye trouble, letf last week as a helper in the engine room of one of the Matson liners on a trip to Honolulu. Meredith expects to remain out of college for one or more quarters before returning to his studies. In the meantime he is going to see some of the neighboring countries.

NEWS FROM THE ORIENT

Following is a second letter from her son Hubert which we prevailed upon Mrs. L. M. Kirkpatrick to allow us to give to our readers. We believe that such letters as these are of great value to the public at the present time.

On board S. S. Wenatchee en route to Shanghai, March 23, 1922.—We are plowing through the Yellow Sea tonight, due in Shanghai about 10 tomorrow morning. We left Kobe at 6 yesterday morning. We had a perfect day sailing through the Inland Sea of Japan. It is a fine trip passing so close to so many islands, most of them cultivated to the top, all terraced.

We had all day and night in Kobe. We hired a guide to take us around and paid him five yen ($2.50) for the day. Kobe is the manufacturing center of Japan. This place, though like the rest of the places, looks awfully dirty to us. The main business street has no sidewalks. The stores all run right in from the street and when it rains, which it did, the water runs all over the floors. We had our lunch in a Jap place. We were the objects of much fun. Our guide told us that probably most of them had never seen an American in there before. First we had a hot sackie, which is a liquor distilled from rice with a kick like a giraffe, then we had soup. They never eat with a spoon, sip it from a bowl. Our next course was rice. We had only chopsticks but made such a mess of it that they brought us a big spoon. This amused them to see such a way to eat. We then had fish, broiled as good as any I ever tasted. We would spear this on a single chopstick and try to eat it. Then they brought us a fork. Our next was what one might call a fish custard. A bowl of curdled egg mixed with fish abalone and squid, I guess. I liked it very much. They serve a dish of pickles with this, but they tasted more like China medicine. I couldn't eat them at all. There were all kinds of leaves and stalks in it. The whole meal for five of us, including two quarts of beer, was only 3 yen 10 sen, which is equal to $1.55. This included 20 sen tips. The soup was fish soup. We had no chairs but a mat to squat down on and eat off the floor or nearly so, as the table was only a few inches high. They have no stoves in the houses but have a big bowl they put charcoal and wood in.

We went to the Shinto shrine. These people are religious in their way all right. There is a big trough in front of the shrine where they drop their money. Then they go up and pull a rope which rings a bell. I don't know what the bell does.

The Japanese coast certainly is mountainous and no good at all to grow stuff. Very little timber and brush. There was some snow on the highest peaks.

There is smallpox in Shanghai. No one is allowed to land in Manila from this ship without being vaccinated. We figured that about our best play would be to do the same, so yesterday we were all vaccinated. Too early to tell yet how it has taken. I don't think I will prowl around Shanghai very much. We may stay but a very short time anyway, as we are behind schedule. We had a lovely day today and the sea has been like a lake with the prettiest indigo water, farther on it gets yellow from the rivers. It is generally rough in here, they say. I can't see why it is smooth while we are here.

Everybody has been well on the boat all the way except one Chinaman, steerage, who died about the third day at sea. We haven't even got colds.

HUBERT.

AUTHOR OF HART LETTERS TO STAND SANITY TEST

Frank W. Norris of San Francisco, indicted by the federal grand jury for the alleged sending of blackmail letters to Julian Hart, wealthy San Francisco broker and resident of Menlo Park, will have a hearing before a lunacy commission, according to an order issued by Judge Frank S. Dietrich in the United Sstates district court of appeals last Saturday.

Morris confessed to sending two letters to Hart demanding a total of $30,000 as a result of the robbery of Hart's home early last March. Newspaper accounts of the robbery led Morris to the belief that Hart had a guilty knowledge of the robbers and would "pay for protection," Morris is said to have told the federal officers.

Morris was trapped by postal inspectors with the aid of Hart, when the latter pretended to follow instructions by Morris with regard to leaving a sum of money at a vacant lot in San Francisco.

BAD LUCK FOLLOWS HARDER

The poultry ranch of L. E. Harder on Stafford street suffered its second fire on Wednesday morning, when more than 2,000 baby chicks were lost in the flames along with three brooder houses. The blaze also threatened the home of Harder, which was slightly damaged.

Trains of the Southern Pacific Company were held up when firemen laid lines of hose across the railroad tracks. The rescue work was seriously hampered by lack of water, according to members of the local department.

Hrder's loss was estimated at more than $2,000, partially covered by insurance.

The fire is believed to have originated in the heating plant of the brooders. A similar fire at the Harder place about six months ago resulted in the loss of 1,500 chicks and one large brooder house, it is reported.

A gold watch belonging to Mrs. L. E. Harder and given to her by her father many years ago was lost during the fire. The initials L. A. M. are cut on the watch. Should anyone find the watch he is requested to communicate with Harder.

REDWOOD CITY AT LOS ANGELES

A team of seven men will represent Redwood City at the coming Pacific Coast bowling congress at Los Angeles, which opens next Monday. The local aggregation, accompanied by E. Ted Thompson as manager, left yesterday morning for the southern city. The lineup includes Charles Stewart, Fred Fortune, J. P. Scannell, Charles W. McCracken, A. P. Sahlberg and John P. Anderson, all crack bowlers on the local alleys.

The team will compete for the state championship on Monday night. On the following day they will take part in the single and double tournaments and on Friday they will roll a match game with another of the visiting teams of the Pacific Coast.

BABYLON RAIDED

Babiyon, formerly the Ohio building at the Panama Pacific Exposition and now converted into a resort on the marshlands east of San Carlos, received a visit from federal prohibition officers last Friday evening. Other peninsula places raided on the same night included the Oak Grove Villa Inn and Menlo Park Hotel.

Liquor was seized at all the places raided, according to reports from the office of Samuel F. Rutter, federal prohibition director at San Francisco.

The San Carlos resort, which advertises the caption "Carry on at Babylon," is said to have attracted a flourishing tourist trade from the adjacent highway since its recent formal opening.

The prohibition agents carried on to the extent that they also carried off five men from the place, all being charged with violation of the liquor laws.

The men are George A. Hensley and R. Madison Smith, said to be proprietors of Babylon, and Jack Barney, C. F. Kett and Henry Meyton, waiters.

The raid on the peninsula resorts is said to have been launched as a results of complaints that soldiers from the base hospital and students from Stanford University were being allowed to patronize the Menlo Park establishments. Both soldiers and students were found in the latter resorts, according to reports of the raiders.

MENLO PARK NEWS

Larrecou for Postmaster

Bernard G. Larrecou received a telegram from Senator S. M. Shortridge on Wednesday announcing his confirmation by the senate as postmaster of Menlo Park. When his commission arrives Mr. Larrecou will assume the duties of the office. At the recent civil service examination Mr. Larrecou secured a percentage of 83. He is an overseas man and had the support of the American Legion. He was also backed by Samuel M. Shortridge, Jr., a schoolmate. The appointment is a popular one and all bespeak a succesful administration for the young man..

A Narrow Escape

G. Cardoza of Menlo Park had a narrow escape from great injury last Tuesday evening at the corner of the Woodside road and the highway when his auto was struck by a big car driven by H. Frank. Both cars were wrecked. Frank and Cardoza suffered severe bruises. The occupants of the car driven by Frank, N. T. Oysten and family of 2515 Scott street, San Francisco, escaped uninjured.

Shortridge Wins Battle

Senator Shortridge won a battle with the treasury department this week by insisting that a California contractor be awarded the contract for the mechanical equipment for the new veterans' bureau hospital here. It was opposed by Senator Smoot, who appeared in behalf of a Salt Lake City contractor. The Salt Lake City bid was $4,000 less than the one offered by the Turn Company of San Francisco and Los Angeles, but the California firm was given the work on its bid for $292,400.

Former Resident Dies

John Angus, a native of Scotland, aged 64 years, a brother of George Angus of Menlo Park, passed away at the Huling Hospital at Redwood City last Friday night. Mr. Angus left here 17 years ago to prospect in the Alaskan gold fields, returning about two months ago broken in health. He stopped here with his brother for a time before going to the hospital. The remains were interred in Cypress Lawn cemetery last Monday. Mr. Angus was unmarried.

Hindes-Agard Wedding

Miss Mollie Hindes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hindes of Atherton, and Henry Agard, electrical engineer of Menlo Park, were married at the Trinity Episcopal church by the Rev. Hugh E. Montgomery last Sunday afternoon.

Following the ceremony, attended only by relatives, a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents. A monster wedding cake was cut by the bride, using a sword worn by her great grandfather during the civil war.

Mr. and Mrs. Agard will spend a short honeymoon in the south before returning to make their home at Menlo Park.

THOMPSON PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Arnold V. (Tommy) Thompson of this city, alleged leader of bandits who terrorized the household of Julien Hart at Menlo Park for more than 12 hours on the night of March 1, entered a plea of not guilty before Superior Judge Buck on Thursday. He will be tried on charges of robbery and burglary on May 11.

Menlo Park Sparks

Thursday of last week the stork left a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilkinson, formerly Helen Clothier. The new arrival will soon be a playmate for her little sister, who is nearly two years old.

Menlo Parlor No. 185, N. S. G. W., will entertain the members of the Native Daughters' Parlor on May 11. There are to be joint meetings of both organizations that evening.

Mrs. Frank Derry has been chosen a delegate to the grand parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West by the local parlor. The grand parlor is to meet at San Rafael the first week in June.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Payne, who bought a home at Atherton a year or two ago, and Miss Barbara Payne are opening their peninsula places this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John sutton recently bought a home at Menlo Park and will move down for the summer.

Friday evening, May 5, Menlo Parlor, N. D. G. W., will give a card party in Native Sons' Hall for the benefit of the basketball team. Refreshments are to be served free. Good prizes and an enjoyable time assured. Come and win a prize.

Leon Douglass and family departed for Los Angeles on Tuesday. From there they will journey to the east for a brief trip.

The Menlo Park baseball team will give a dance in Native Sons' Hall this evening. The proceeds of the dance will go toward a fund to buy uniforms for the nine. It's a worthy cause. All should buy tickets and help the organization. Good music will be the feature of the evening. Dancing will continue until 3 a. m.

F. Perrell, a San Francisco business man, has purchased three acres of land at Menlo eHights on which he will erect a cottage shortly. The sale was made by T. A. Sullivan, the local realty operator.

Bernard Doyle, young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle of this place met with a painful accident last Saturday night in being run over by a bicycle rider in front of the Palm Hotel. The little fellow suffered a fracture of the bones of his left leg above the ankle. Dr. Null of Redwood City is attending the boy, who will be laid up for some time.

The work of wrecking several of the large buildings at the base hospital began this week under the supervision of John O'Farrell. Mahoney Brothers have the contract to construct the new buildings and are removing the old ones and wrecking others preparatory to starting active construction operations. Many men are employed at the institution and more are to be put to work next week.

Two baseball games are to be played at the community center tomorrow afternoon. The first is to be between the All Stars and the American Legion of Palo Alto to begin at 1:30. The other contest is to be between the Menlo Park nine and the Sodality team of Santa Clara. This game will be called at 3:30.

The management of the Menlo Theater have arranged with the First National Picture Company, high class films, and will show an extra date, Wednesday, May 3, and Thursday, May 4. Their pictures are screened in the largest of houses in big cities and at a greater amount of admission. Murray & Meyer, proprietors, aim to give to their patrons all that can be desired. If you feel out of whack come and see the fine picture, a sure relief.

Mrs. J. Ellis Ensor was here from San Francisco spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Lon Cook. Mrs. Ensor had a bad case of influenza last month, but is now practically over all the effects of that insidious malady.

First to establish the $10.90 price—"Usco"

THE makers of U. S. Tires made this announcement last November—

"Hereafter the price of the 30 x 3½ 'Usco' is $10.90."

The lowest price ever quoted on a tire of quality reputation and standard performance.

And now, with the opening of Spring, there seem to be quite a number of "New and Special tires" coming into the market in the $10.90 price range.

Perhaps you are wondering just what there can be either "new" or "special" about these tires.

It can't be the $10.90 price—"Usco" established that five months ago.

Nor quality reputation and standard performance—for it takes more than one full season for any new tire to demonstrate where it stands in quality and value

With so many tires rushing into this $10.90 price field (now that the season promises business from the American car-owner), it is worth remembering that "Usco" showed its good faith by announcing this price last fall.

The same intent to serve that has made "Usco" a standard value for years.

The "Usco" Tire was never better than it is today—with its established quality, its time-tested performance, and its price closely figured in tune with the times.

and even better than the price
